

Animator:

move the subject a little bit between each photo. Try not to make big changes. Remove your hands from scene for photo.

Animator:

move the subject a little bit between each photo. Try not to make big changes. Remove your hands from scene for photo.

Photographer:

Snap the picture after the subject has been moved a little. Wait until hands are out of the scene. Don't move the camera during a scene.

Director:

Oversees the animation and photography. Makes sure the "story" is being told, the camera is stable, and the animation is working.